Que se passe-t-il quand on essaie d'implanter des bactéries sur une base artificielle : les signes ?

Screen shot du reaction-diffusion

<https://skyl.fr/play/reaction-diffusion>

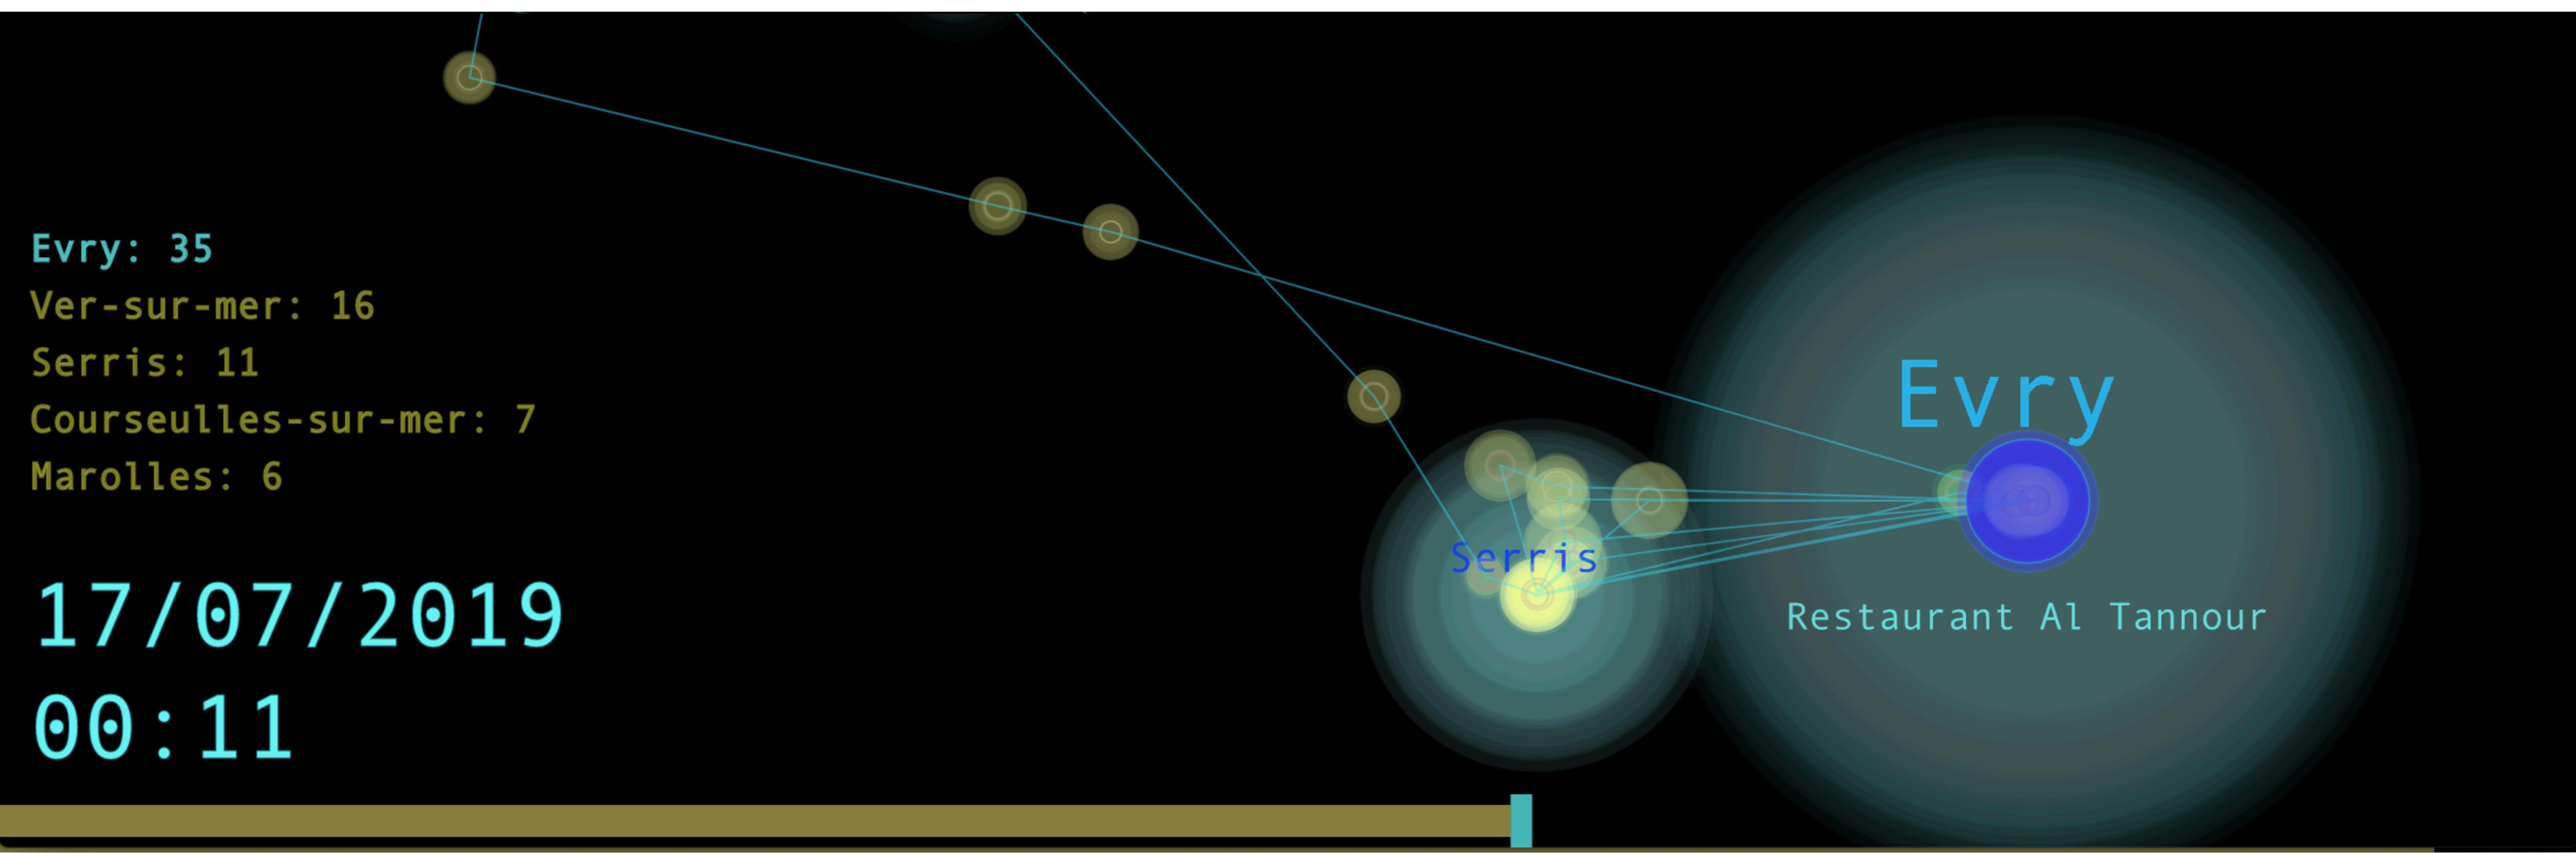

Un système à réaction-diffusion est un modèle mathématique qui décrit l'évolution des concentrations d'une ou plusieurs substances spatialement distribuées et soumises à deux processus : un processus de réactions chimiques locales, dans lequel les différentes substances se transforment, et un processus de diffusion qui provoque une répartition de ces substances dans l'espace1.

Installation interactive questionnant le rapport entre les données personnelles et le moyen de communication qui se développe à grande vitesse. Qui nous surveille ? Quelles traces laissons nous à travers l'usage de ces technologies ?

On est toujours à la poursuite de vitesse et de développement, mais les ressources mises à notre disposition ne sont pas illimitées, 'Unsustainable' propose un moment calme et zen, avec les particules qui essaient de grandir (doucement).

Video : <https://vimeo.com/517061455>

Dessin, ligne déformées, bruit. Noise-draw met en valeur le processus du dessin rapide en rendant les lignes actives et les mouvements audibles.

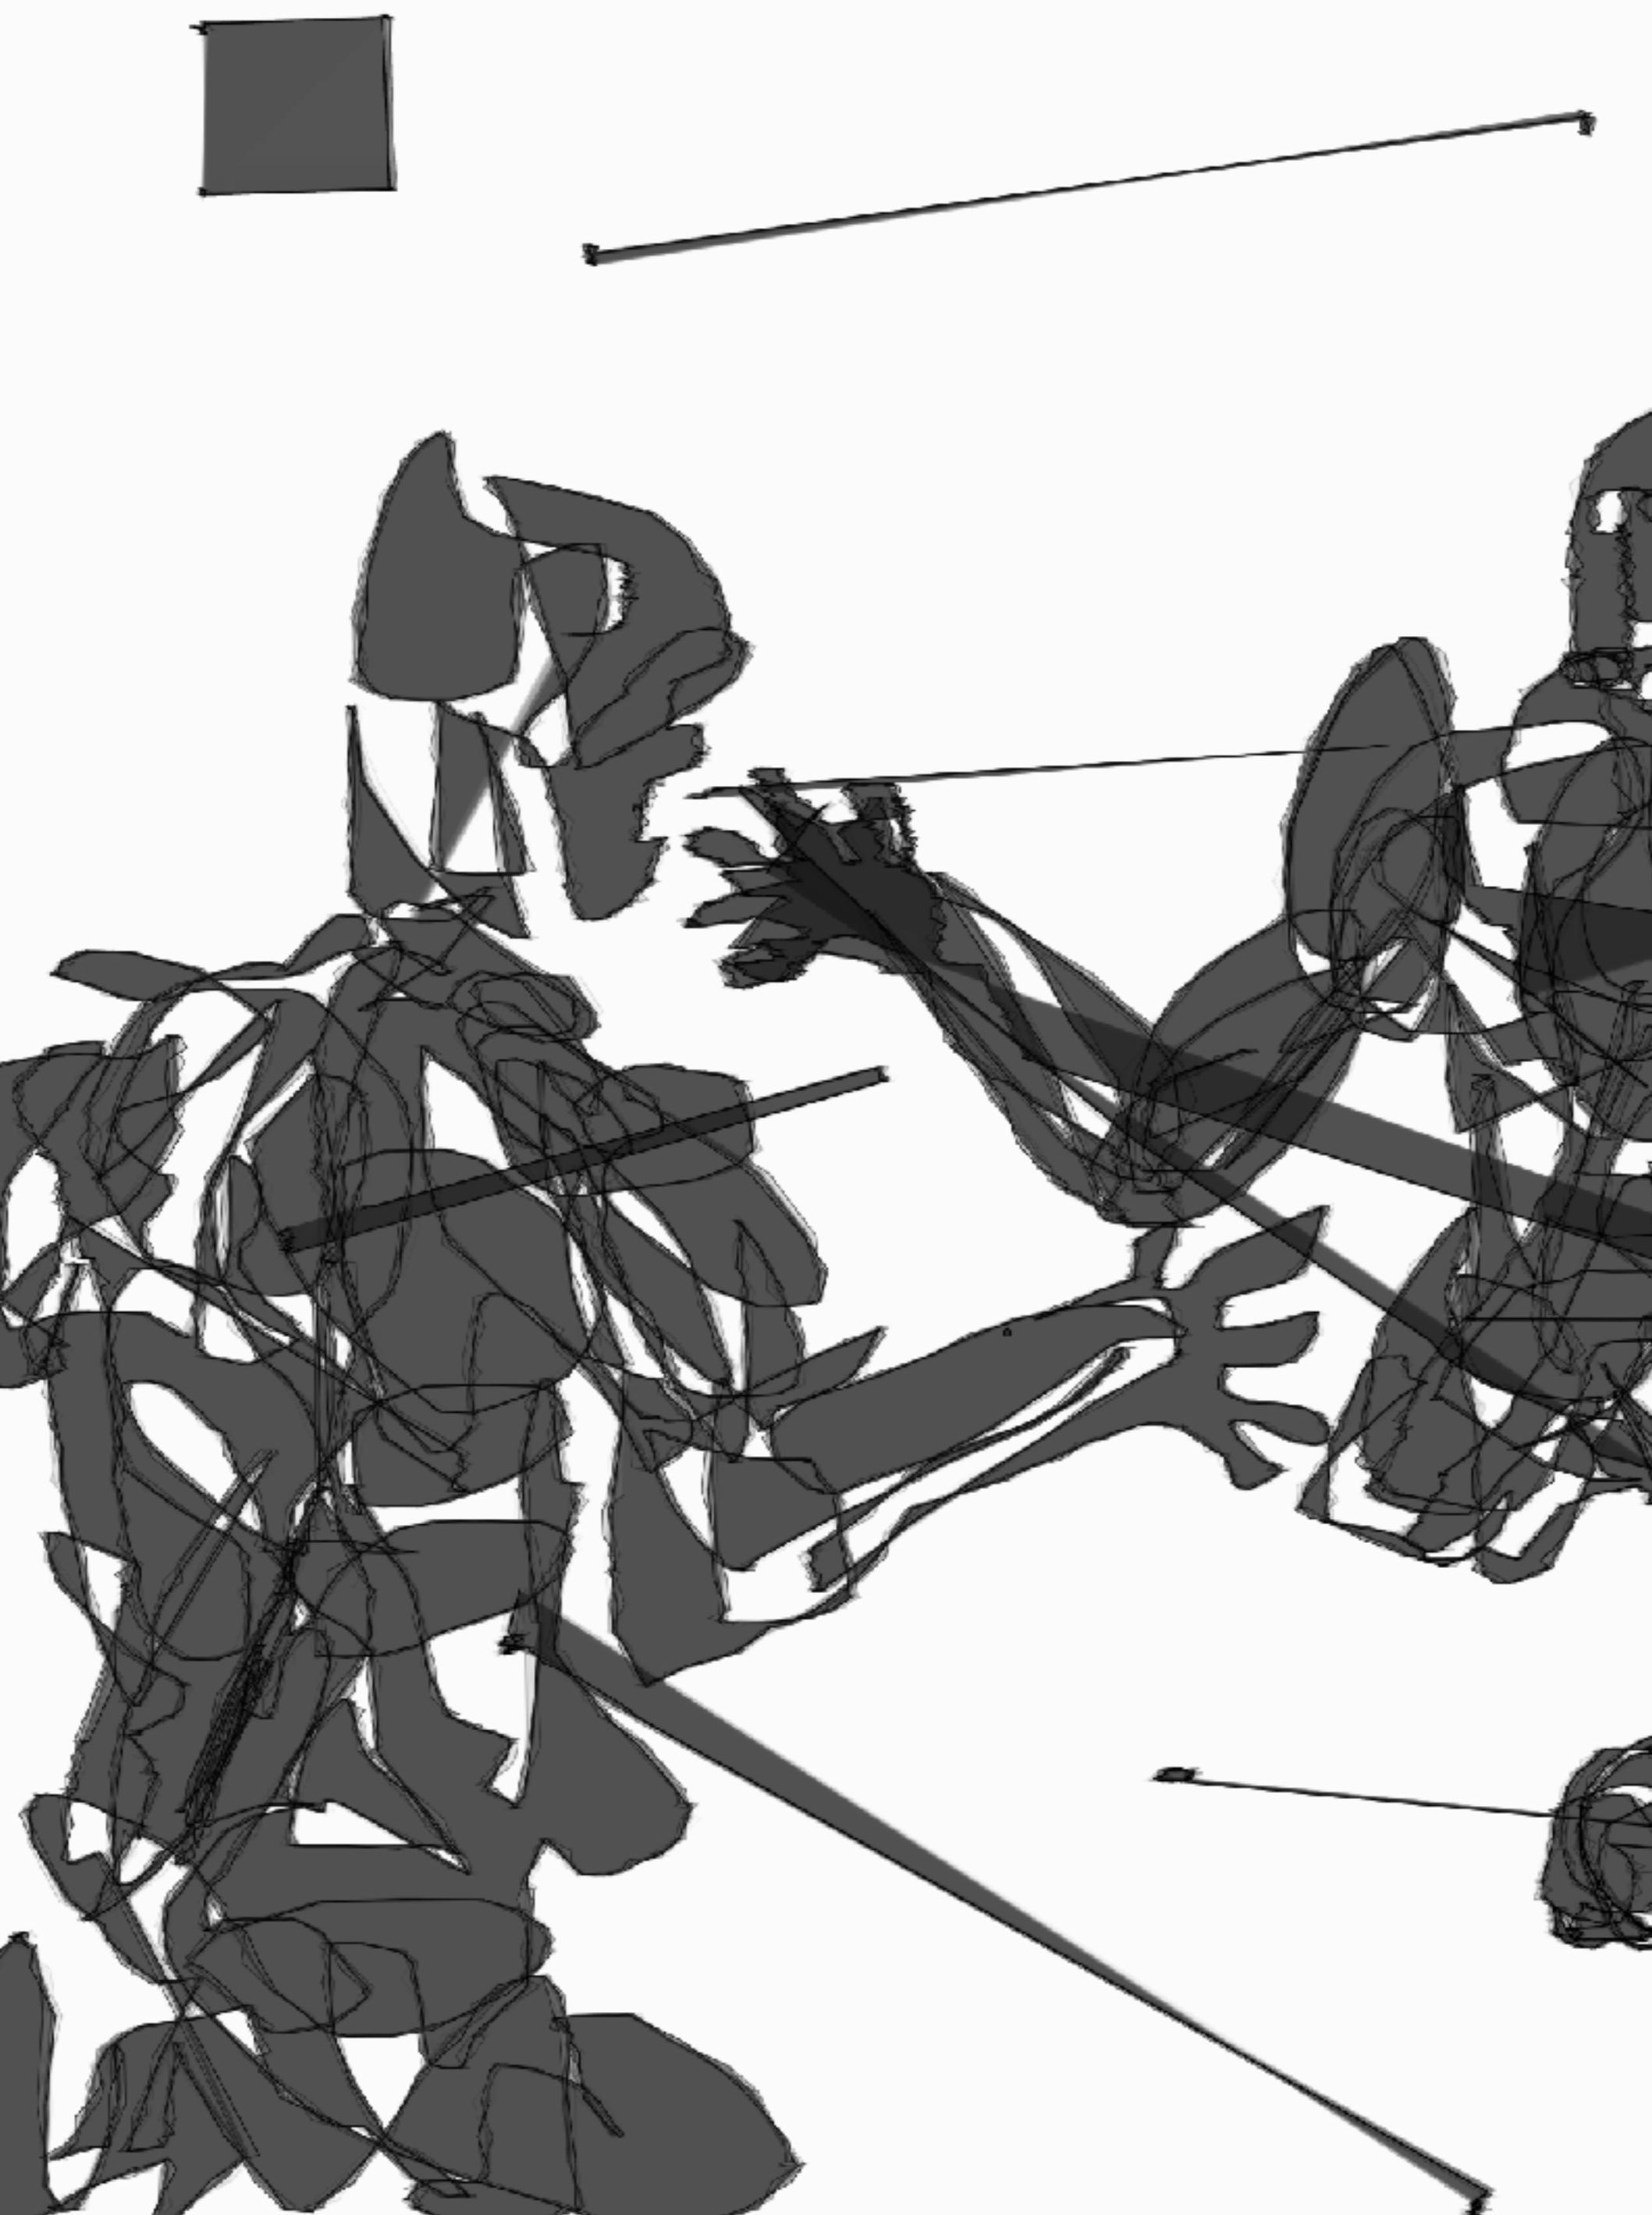

- Performance dessin rapide avec 'noise draw' sur une tablette, avec son et image en live projetés dans la salle.

- Sur un écran tactile

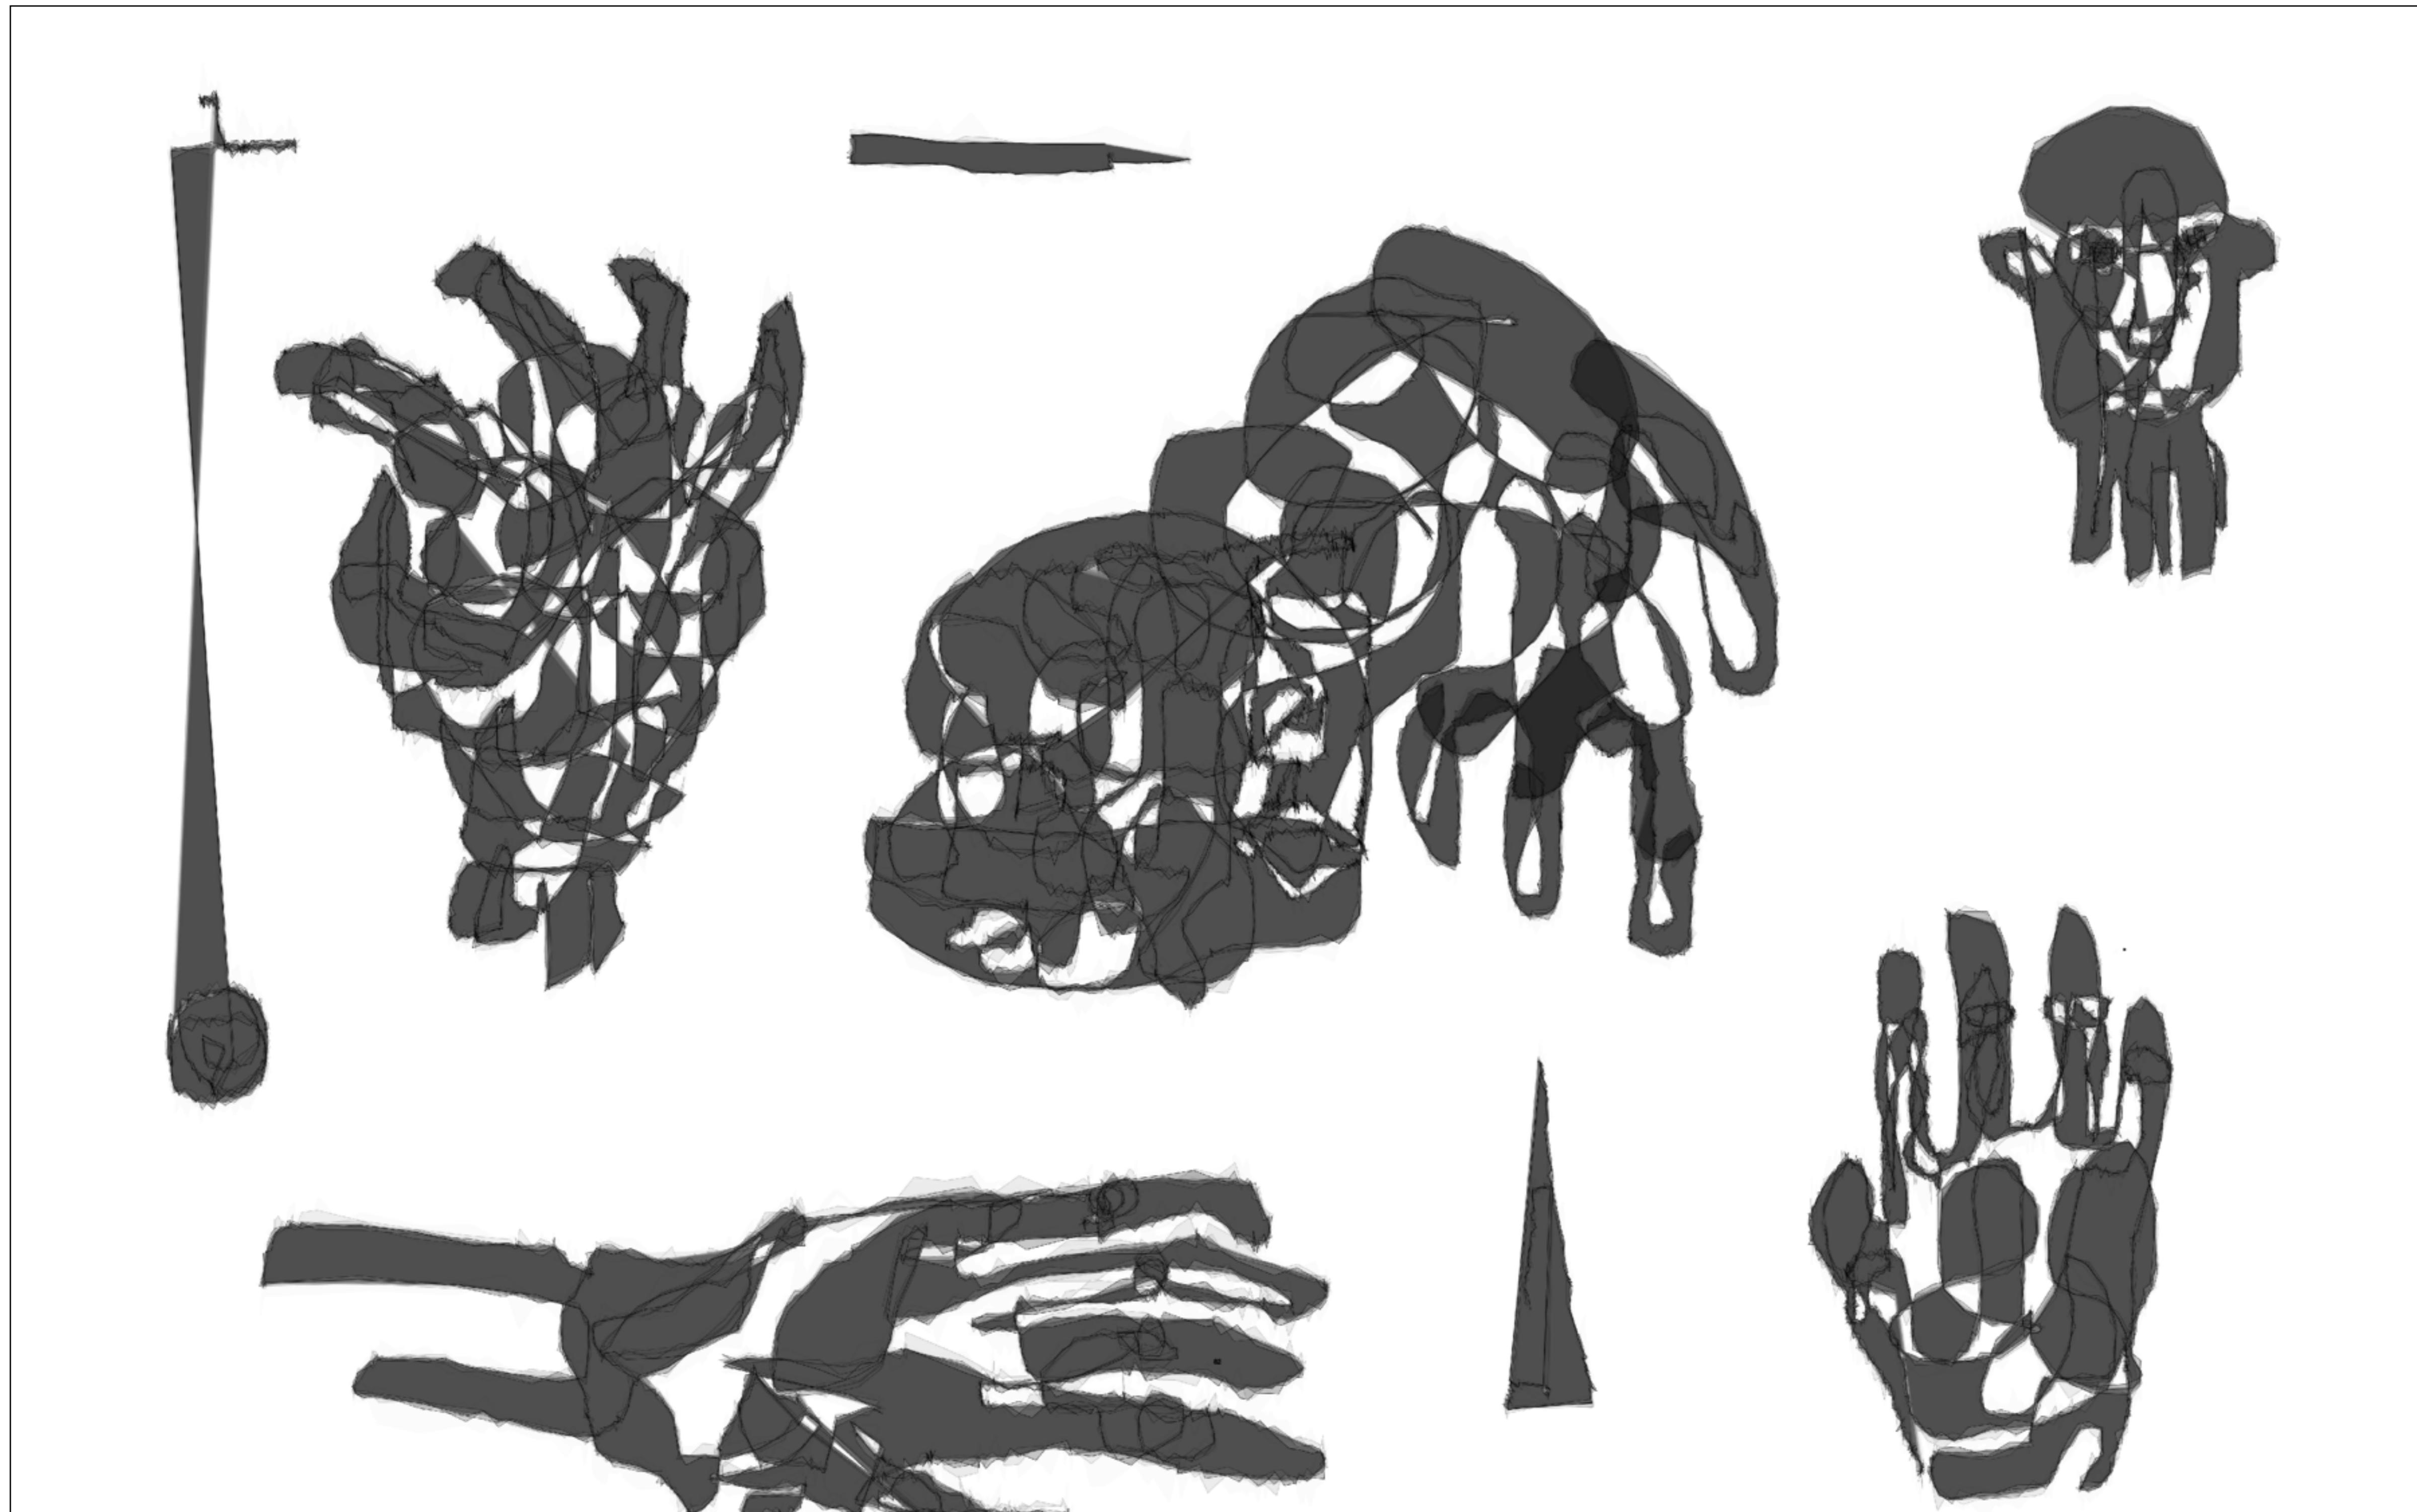

Les coordonnées (x, y) de tous les points sont enregistrées, pour éventuellement d'être utilisées, rappelées, réinterprétée d'une façon ou autre.
